Zohab Zee Khan – Spoken Word Poet Performance

Dear Parents/Carers,

In Term 3 Week 4, students in Years 3-6 will have the opportunity to experience a performance by spoken word poet, Zohab Zee Khan, a production from School Performance Tours. This performance links with the Australian Curriculum learning areas of English, The Arts, as well as the following General Capabilities: Intercultural Understanding, Personal and social capability, and Creative thinking. A brief description of the show is as follows:

Zohab Zee Khan totally engrosses his audience for the entire 50 minutes with this physical, energetic, straight from the heart performance. His combination of slam poetry, rap, didgeridoo and harmonica playing, beat-boxing and percussion along with his combination of audience participation and freestyle improvisation makes this a very unique, contemporary theatre experience.

With the incorporation of self-development techniques aka brain hacking, spoken-word poetry becomes not just a platform for self-expression but also a platform to inspire change. A 4th generation Australian of Pakistani heritage, he grew up in rural NSW and draws from his distinct life experiences to create his stories with the intent to educate. Zohab confronts a range of social justice issues from racism to gender inequality and socio-economic disparity.
